Tile Based Systems

Tile Based Systems are meticulously designed to creatively fit into any layout. This characteristic of being highly flexible and accommodating is possible due to the ingeniously crafted panel structures. These panels are proportional and provide clean visual lines to impart a modern look and feel. Different finishes and textures augment the décor.

A truly global design yet very INDIAN at heart reason

The internationally-designed Reason with its open interactive environment is all set to bring a global touch to modern Indian workplaces.

For the most part, it is the seamless active overhead storage that gives Reason an international look while helping you sort and organize with plenty of room for all those big ideas. Since it is collaboration that is the requirement of the day for global markets, our mobile storage aids in forming such collaborative workspaces.

Full Height Partition Systems

Corporate space perceived as a vast, seamless expanse is the order of the day when it comes to modern offices. The transparency of glass lets you achieve this. The seamlessness of minimalist partitioning with one look running through is what makes Wall from Godrej Interio such an interesting office design element. It imparts a larger-than-life look and feel to otherwise limited interiors. It looks modernistic, futuristic and minimalist - all at once, to give your office that vast, unbroken, limitless and highly corporate look.
One look at our storage options and you’ll see not just a face lift but a full functionality lift. Storage has become an integral center-stage element in designing today’s workspaces. Hence, you’ll find that our aesthetic and utilitarian storage options not only match with and enhance office decor, but also multi-task with effortless ease.
